Public Media Faces Its Most Urgent Threat Yet

Phil Meyer, SOPBS CEO

Despite overwhelming public opposition, the U.S. House of Representatives has passed a rescissions package that would eliminate $1.1 billion in already-approved funding for public media. If enacted, it would strip essential services from communities and could force rural stations off the air. At press time, the Senate will take up the bill next.

Please sign up for updates at protectmypublicmedia.org/join. You'll get email alerts you when public media funding is threatened and let you know how you can act to protect your favorite stations.

A 2022 University of Pennsylvania study found that countries with well-funded public media have healthier democracies. As the CEO of SOPBS, I also know that healthy democracies rely on more than just consumerism and success in the marketplace.

Fifty percent of the preschool-age children in our country do not attend preschool. Should those children be less ready to start school, because their parents can't afford preschool? Research has proven that millions of children not only learn academic skills, but also social skills and kindness from PBS KIDS.

PBS stations are the backbone of the cellular warning system nationwide. Should people who live in remote rural areas be in danger, because they don't live close enough to a commercial TV station?

Millions of people can't afford — or aren't able — to go to a concert or see a play. Should people not have the opportunity to be inspired by opera, classical music, the American Songbook, jazz, country music, or the works of Shakespeare, because they can't afford a ticket?

Millions of teachers and homeschoolers use educational materials at PBSLearningMedia.org for FREE that meet state standards, which are sorted by grade level and subject. Should their students only have access to materials that their teachers or parents can afford?

PBS and its member stations provide these services (and more) to the American public — all for free — because commercial media decided that they couldn't make enough money off of them.

While shows like DR. PIMPLE POPPER, CHEATERS and WIFE SWAP may be entertaining to some, and generate ratings for advertisers, what benefits are they providing to society?

An investment of $1.60 per person per year in public media is an investment in our future — of journalism, our children's education, and democracy alike.

Thank you to all the Viewers Like You who help make all of this possible.

JULY PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

Winner of the Audience Award at the 2024 DOC NYC Film Festival, SLUMLORD MILLIONAIRE explores the rapid gentrification of New York City neighborhoods and the housing crisis sweeping not only New York, but the nation. Median rents nationwide are higher than ever, and, in Manhattan, the average rent is now almost $5,000 per month.

As rents increase, some landlords have become aggressive in getting long-term tenants to leave: ignoring repairs, turning off heat and gas, and doing nothing to eliminate mold and vermin infestations. The landlord's goal is to make the apartment so uninhabitable that residents are forced out, allowing them to deregulate the apartment and turn it over to market rate for a high profit. These actions drive up costs in the already unaffordable housing market and displace families who make up the fabric of these neighborhoods, changing communities forever.

RUTHLESS: Monopoly's Secret History

Tue, July 29 at 9pm

For generations, Monopoly has been America's favorite board game, a love letter to unbridled capitalism and — for better or worse — the impulses that make our free-market society tick. But behind the myth of the game's creation is an untold tale of theft, obsession and corporate double-dealing.

Contrary to the folksy legend spread by Parker Brothers, Monopoly's secret history is a surprising saga that features a radical feminist, a community of Quakers in Atlantic City, America's greatest game company, and an unemployed Depression-era engineer. And the real story behind the creation of the game might never have come to light if it weren't for the determination of an economics professor and impassioned anti-monopolist.

Tuesdays, July 8 – July 22 at 9pm

Framed through the eyes of an aging Michelangelo, whose long life spanned this extraordinary period, the series traces more than sixty years, beginning with the Pazzi Conspiracy of 1478 and concluding with the unveiling of The Last Judgement in 1541. Through stunning visuals, compelling storytelling, and historical insight, the series reveals how these artists battled for favor, risked everything in service of their patrons, and reshaped the world's understanding of art and the artist.

July 8 – Rise

Michelangelo and Leonardo struggle to win work in the brutal world of Renaissance Italy, navigating the shifting politics of powerful patrons and violent city-states. In Florence, young Michelangelo rises under the Medici's patronage, while Leonardo builds his reputation in Milan.

July 15 – Rivalry

Florence becomes a hotbed of creative competition as Michelangelo and Leonardo return to the city and battle for artistic supremacy. When Michelangelo is awarded the commission for David, Leonardo seeks to outshine him with technical innovation, but the arrival of the young prodigy Raphael threatens both men. Their careers collide in Rome under Pope Julius II's patronage, igniting an epic artistic showdown.

July 22 - Redemption

While Michelangelo paints the Sistine Chapel ceiling, Raphael ascends in the Pope's favor while working on his private apartments. But shortly after the completion of the Sistine ceiling, the Pope dies, and as the Protestant Reformation tears through Europe, art becomes a battleground for ideology and power. As the new Pope, Pope Leo X, seeks to reassert Catholic supremacy, Michelangelo is commissioned for a depiction of The Last Judgement, which will become both a political statement and a very personal expression of Michelangelo's own spiritual redemption.

Six Episodes

Season 6 Premieres Sun, Aug 24 at 10pm

The detectives are on a mission to uncover the mystery behind an unsolved murder that occurred 39 years ago. Beneath the ground of a demolished house, the bones of the victim are found. With this evidence, the modern police team open a case to unearth the history that has remained buried for decades. Four main suspects emerge, and as their dark past is unraveled, the truth behind the events of the crime are finally revealed.

Episode 1 – When a spine is dredged out of Whitney Marsh, a new case begins for Jess and Sunny's team at Bishop Street CID. Four potential suspects, Juliet, Melinda, Asif, and Marty, each have secrets to hide.

Episode 2 – The Bishop Street team investigate Gerry Cooper's record, relationships, and enemies. Jess and Sunny make contact with his widow, Juliet. More layers to the suspects' lives are revealed, and none of them are as innocent as they first seem.

Episode 3 – The team discover Asif, Mel, and Marty's connections to Gerry, and bring Marty in; Gerry Cooper's descent into nationalism is revealed, as well as his violent streak; as Jess reaches out to her sister, Leanne and Sunny's friendship evolves.

Episode 4 – With the details of Gerry Cooper's life becoming clearer and one suspect already being questioned, the Bishop Street team find suspects further afield. And if Mel and Asif have nothing to hide, why do they claim not to remember Gerry?

Episode 5 – Lies are uncovered as Mel and Asif are taken into custody. Juliet tries to protect Taylor, and herself, from the investigation, and a possible witness to the body's disposal is found. And Jess plans a conversation with Steve.

Episode 6 – For better or worse, Jess and Sunny finally get the truth from Asif, Marty, Mel, and Juliet, and Gerry Cooper's killer is revealed. But both on and off the case, the truth leads to difficult decisions.

CLEARING THE AIR: THE WAR ON SMOG

Tues, Aug 26 at 9pm

In the summer of 1943, a thick noxious haze of smog enveloped the Los Angeles region. Residents complained of burning eyes and lungs, and some experienced nausea. The physical distress caused by the haze was so bad that many feared it was a Japanese chemical warfare attack.

Over the next several years, the problem reached crisis proportions. Farmers began complaining of discolored lettuce, wilted crops, and dying produce. Many suspected emissions from sulfur-emitting factories had caused the foul air, but a chemist at the California Institute of Technology had a different theory. Arie Haagen-Smit determined that the smog was the result of sunlight breaking down incompletely burned gasoline and other hydrocarbons found in car emissions.

Meanwhile, across the country, toxicologist Mary Amdur made a disturbing discovery: the combined effects of air pollutants, even when not lethal, she determined, could cause permanent damage to lungs. Both Haagen-Smit and Amdur would suffer reprisals from entrenched industries threatened by their discoveries, but as the 1950s progressed, ordinary citizens became active in the fight to address air pollution across the country until, in 1963, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed into law the Clean Air Act, one of the nation's first environmental laws.

WAR ON SMOG tells the story of the epic struggle against airborne toxins that lead to a national reckoning about air quality and the creation of the Clean Air Act.

THE MARLOW MURDER CLUB

Season 2 Premieres Sun, Aug 24 at 9pm

Stream Season 1 of this program now, and Season 2 starting Aug 24 on SOPBS Passport at sopbs.org

While life in the idyllic town of Marlow has just about returned to normal after a chain of murders rattled the tightly-knit community, it's not long before retired archaeologist Judith Potts, dog-walker Suzie Harris, and Vicar's wife Becks Starling are called back into action to solve a series of new crimes that befall the local residents.

From a seemingly impossible murder inside the locked study of a sweeping mansion to the mysterious case of a man with no connection to the town murdered in the middle of a sleepy cul-de-sac, and an unexpectedly brutal accident at the prestigious Marlow sailing club that quickly reveals itself to be something more sinister, there's no rest for our sleuthing trio. Navigating the delicate balance of Marlow society — from local aristocracy to the workers at the local boatyard, the pubs and cafes of the high street to a newly established archaeological dig — Judith, Becks and Suzie dig into all corners of Marlow life as they assist DCI Tanika Malik in her official investigations.

Episode 1- Death Comes To Marlow, Part 1

When a wealthy baronet dies alone in his study the day before his wedding, Judith, Becks, and Suzie find themselves at the center of another puzzling and complicated mystery.

Episode 2 - Death Comes To Marlow, Part 2

As the suspects' alibis stack up, Judith, Becks, and Suzie are pushed to their limits. Will they be able to solve the puzzling murder of Sir Peter before anyone else gets hurt?

Episode 3 - Death On The Close, Part 1

When a man with no ID and no connection to Marlow is found dead in the middle of a suburban road, Judith, Becks, and Suzie delve into secrets between the residents.

Episode 4 - Death On The Close, Part 2

A surprising link to a past missing persons case shines a new light on the residents of Linnet Close for Judith, Becks and Suzie, but could they be responsible for murder on their doorstep?

Episode 5 - Sailing Close To The Wind, Part 1

After a revered member of the sailing club is brutally bludgeoned to death, Judith, Becks, and Suzie must navigate simmering grudges within the tight-knit community on the hunt for justice.

Episode 6 - Sailing Close To The Wind, Part 2

As the motives stack up against suspects Gregg and Harry, Kit's killer sends another violent warning and Judith, Becks and Suzie find themselves in a race against time to solve the case.
