SUMMER JULY

On SOPTV  PBS

Great British Baking Show, Season 3

Follow the trials and tribulations of passionate amateur bakers whose goal is to be named the U.K.'s best. Each week, the bakers tackle a different skill, the difficulty of which increases as the competition unfolds. Mary Berry, a leading cookbook writer, and Paul Hollywood, a top artisan baker, serve as judges. Together with hosts and comic foils Sue Perkins and Mel Giedroyc, Berry and Hollywood search for the country's best amateur baker.

Fridays at 9 pm

On SOPTV WORLD AMERICA REFRAMED

Buried Above Ground

Follow three Americans fighting to overcome the paralyzing grip of PTSD: Luis Carlos Montalván, an Iraq War veteran who has emerged as a best-selling author and leading PTSD awareness advocate; Erundina López, a survivor of child abuse and domestic violence who has battled addiction for years; and Ashley Boudreaux, a fifth-generation New Orleans native whose home was destroyed by Hurricane Katrina.

Travels with Darley

Host Darley Newman travels with local people in beautiful and awe-inspiring locations to experience history, culture, food, music, art, and adventure. She introduces viewers to diverse cultures and traditions and what makes each location truly unique. Darley's on-camera local counterparts are the true stars of each episode, as they lead her through their world to learn about places that are less publicized by traditional media.

OLD?!

More than seventy people with poignant stories and plain-speak wisdom talk about the life journey of aging. These individuals, up to to 101 years old, offer funny, touching, and inspiring stories as they share their perspectives about what it means to be old. The film invites us to embrace our own aging process.

Monday, July 11 at 10 pm

The Salinas Project

In the predominantly Latino neighborhood of Salinas known as Alisal, poverty, deplorable housing conditions, and gang violence are a part of daily life. For the children of migrant farm workers, without resources and sometimes undocumented, the future looks uncertain, yet they cling to the hope of a better life.

Ball of Confusion: The 1968 Election

The 1968 Presidential election was impacted by assassinations, racial unrest, and anti-war protests. The American voters faced an unwelcome but unavoidable dilemma: Could they right America's course, especially with an unsatisfying set of choices in the November election for the White House?
