SUMMER JULY

On SOPTV  PBS

My Story of Service, Season 2

Hear personal, military history stories told by southern Oregon veterans. Stories include enlistment and boot camp, through deployment, to returning home and after. Season 2 stories focus on veterans from the Vietnam era, featuring (in order) Gary Foster of Eagle Point, Cecil Misner of Grants Pass, David Aragon of Medford, Larry Slessler of Medford, Jerry Heckers of Grants Pass, Michael Meer of Grants Pass, and Wallais "Van" Nicholas of Medford.

Mondays at 9 pm, starting July 10

On SOPTV

Start Up

Take an up-close and personal look into the world of the modern American entrepreneur. As complicated as starting a business may seem, the goal is to demystify the process by sharing the real life experiences of average Americans who are taking control of their own destiny while creating jobs for others. Over 90% of companies in America are small businesses, which employ over 50% of people working.

A Craftsman's Legacy

Host Eric Gorges combs the country for the finest craftsmen, documenting what it means to be a modern day maker. Eric explains the history of an old-world craft as it is practiced today. He meets and interviews men and women who are master craftsmen, exploring why they chose their craft, where they learned their skills, and how they live using their talents. They also discuss the challenges and importance of keeping craftsmanship alive in the face of mass production.

Members' Message

Mark Stanislawski

YOUR LOCAL SUPPORT IS IMPORTANT TO US

As I write this month's column, we are conducting our June membership drive — the final pledge drive of our fiscal year. If you renewed your membership or sent an additional gift during our year-end campaign, thank you! We could not do it without you!

Your support is critical to our ability to purchase the full PBS programming service (estimated to be over $406,000 in the upcoming fiscal year) and offer SOPTV-Create and SOPTV-World, as well as local programs like My Story of Service, Local Focus, Immense Possibilities, Brain Bowl, Student Showcase, and more!

In May, Congress approved the FY17 omnibus spending bill, including level funding for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting at \$445M (that's $\frac{1}{100}$ th of 1% of the federal budget). In June, the President released his "skinny budget," which only provides funding for an "orderly closeout" of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

While there is strong support in the Oregon delegation and in the Senate and House Appropriations Committees, we cannot take anything for granted as Congress prepares to submit a budget to the President in a few months for the upcoming federal fiscal year, October 1, 2017 through September 30, 2018.

PBS commissioned a special survey last winter that shows the American people overwhelmingly support federal funding of public television.

- The poll conducted in early 2017 reveals 73% of viewers oppose eliminating federal funding for public television.
- 83% of voters — including 70% of those who voted for President Trump — say they would tell elected representatives to find other places to save money.
- 72% rated public television as an excellent or good value for their tax dollars.
- 2 in 3 voters think it is very or fairly important for America to have a strong public television system.*

I encourage you to visit www.protectmypublicmedia.org. Follow the proceedings and make up your own mind how important PBS and SOPTV's services are to you.

Many thanks for your support of SOPTV.
