SPRING MARCH

On SOPTV  PBS

Great Performances: Indecent

See Paula Vogel's Tony Award winner inspired by the true story of the controversial 1923 Broadway debut of Sholem Asch's God of Vengeance. The play, with joyous songs and dance, looks at an explosive moment in theatrical history. The play follows the troupe of actors who risked their lives and careers against enormous challenges to perform a work in which they deeply believed, at a time when art, freedom, and truth were on trial.

Food – Delicious Science

This three-part series travels the world and breaks down the natural history, chemistry, and biology of food, offering a fun, startling and completely new view of what we eat and why we eat it. Explore how the hidden chemistry in every mouthful of food contributes to the nourishment and building of the human body. Understanding the deep evolutionary roots of food cravings offers a new way of thinking about the modern diet.

Wyland's Art Studio

Internationally renowned artist and conservation advocate Wyland showcases techniques for painting nature and outdoor scenes. Best known for his marine life murals, Wyland renders his years of travel and adventure — from scuba diving below the Antarctic ice to journeys down the Mississippi River — into works of art. This season, Wyland's subjects range from stunning ocean scenes to portraits of whales, seals, sea otters, dolphins, and more.

Members' Message

EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED ON SOPTV

This month SOPTV has its biggest membership drive of the year, beginning on March 3. You can see the tribute to the Beatles' George Harrison in Concert for George on March 3, take a look back at the 50th anniversary of Fred Rogers' career with Mister Rogers: It's You I Like on March 6, and enjoy more spectacular scenery of our beautiful state with a new edition of Oregon Revealed: The Water Around Us on March 8, along with many other programs.

Over the years, roughly 60% of our members joined SOPTV during a March drive. Thanks to your continuing support and other dedicated SOPTV members, we are able to offer the "best television on television." The price for quality is expensive. This year our share of the PBS program service was $407,900. This figure does not count the special acquisitions we have made for our southern Oregon members and viewers such as Doc Martin, DCI Banks, Father Brown, Midsomer Murders, Miss Marple, Maigret (March 18) and other favorites, plus the additional programming you enjoy on SOPTV-Create and SOPTV-World.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON

As I write this column on February 13th, Congress reached a budget agreement and the President has signed a two-year spending bill. The bipartisan agreement raises the Federal debt limit until March 2019 with military spending scheduled to increase by $165B, domestic spending by $131B, and $90B for disaster relief. At this time we do not know what this means for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB). On February 13, the administration released its budget recommendations, and it does not include support for CPB. Last year the President's budget included $30M to wind down CPB's operations. Fortunately, the Appropriations Committees in the House and Senate restored funding, which is $445M or 1/100th of 1% of the budget.

Below is a link to a video produced by Lisa Desjardins of the PBS NewsHour, "What you need to know about the federal debt ceiling, and why you should care."

Thank you for your continued support!
