GENERATIONS OF GIVING BACK

Eric Chaddock, director of Ashland's locally-owned independent grocery store, Shop'n Cart, is continuing his father's legacy, placing a high priority on lifelong learning. To him, being a business sponsor of PBS aligns with the mission of his store.

"The store's eclectic mix of customers are extremely diversified, as is our community. I think PBS is a perfect marriage for that cultural diversity and thought diversity," said Eric. "I am proud to say my customers watch PBS. Not because I am advertising on it, because they are forward thinking individuals."

Part of Eric's dedication to PBS comes from a personal connection to Jim Henson.

A Brief History of SOUTHERN OREGON PBS

by Mark Stanislawski
President & CEO of SOPTV

With the launch of our new name and brand look, we felt it was important to take a moment to look back at the work we have done as a station over the years. Most importantly, I want to say thank you to our members and viewers who have been here with us, some of you for many years. We couldn't do this without you, and we value your support.

Southern Oregon Education Company (KSYS-8 Public Television) went on the air Jan 17, 1977, with help from Bill Smullin of KTVM-TV (now KOBI) and Ray Johnson of KMED-TV (now KTVL).

Art Knowles, President & CEO

Transitioned to Southern Oregon Public Television.
Fred Flaxman, President & CEO

Don McKay, President & CEO

PBS and Southern Oregon Public Television first have an online presence.

I'm Mark Stanislawski, President & CEO, and I am SO PBS's longest-serving president.

WORLD & Create channels launched.

Former Board Chairman Joe Foley with Mark Stanislawski. Joe stepped down from the Board in November, and a new chair will be voted on in June.

DAVE CHAPPELLE: THE MARK TWAIN PRIZE

TUES, JAN 7 - 10pm

Dave Chappelle is an internationally recognized stand-up comedian and actor whose trademark wit and sharp, irreverent social commentary explores race, popular culture, sex, drugs, politics, and fame. Arguably the most-touring comic on the circuit, Chappelle has performed more than 1,600 concerts worldwide in the past four years, selling out shows within minutes of their announcements.

Chappelle could always make people laugh. As a 14-year-old student at Washington, D.C.'s Duke Ellington School of the Arts, Chappelle crafted his stand-up comedy act out of the realities of his life growing up black in the nation's capitol.

He was the mastermind behind the 2003 sketch comedy hit, The Chappelle Show—one of the highest rated programs on Comedy Central.

Before receiving the Mark Twain award, the multiple Emmy Award® winner told NPR that stand-up is his “favorite mode of expression” and that he calls it “an American phenomenon.”

“It’s the best part of the First Amendment to me that I’m able to express myself this way and make a viable living doing it,” he said. “And it’s not necessarily an easy living but it’s ... worth everything that I’ve been through — especially to get a night like tonight, and have people just recognize it’s not an easy thing to do. And it’s humbling to get an award.”

HOWARDS END

Premieres SUN, JAN 12 - 8pm

Often considered E.M. Forster's masterpiece, Howards End is the story of two independent and unconventional sisters and the men in their lives seeking love and meaning as they navigate an ever-changing world.

Premieres SUN, JAN 19 - 10pm

An Austrian crime thriller, the six-part series is based on the best-selling novels of Frank Tallis. Starring Matthew Beard (The Imitation Game), and Juergen Maurer (Tatort), Vienna Blood takes place in 1900s Vienna, which just so happens to be a breeding ground of philosophy, science and art. Max Liebermann (Beard) is a brilliant young English doctor, studying under psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud. He meets Oskar Rheinhardt (Maurer), an Austrian detective and the pair go on to tackle some of Vienna's most mysterious and deadly cases.

in the Spotlight

10 Episodes
Premieres WED JAN 15 - 10pm

In Expedition With Steve Backshall, the audience is given a glimpse into some of the incredible parts of the world that have yet to be explored. The world is full of surprising discoveries and journeys to be made, and the hope is to spark viewers' curiosity and ignite their spirit of adventure.

The series follows adventurer Steve Backshall, his team of world-class experts and his film crew, as they venture into undiscovered worlds. To be successful, Steve and his adventurer experts – including cave divers, kayakers and mountaineers – have to rely on each other and the power of extraordinary teamwork.

The first episode sees Steve check out the Desert Canyon in Oman. From free-diving in underground river systems and descending deep into the caves of the Maya underworld, to kayaking Himalayan whitewater and scaling unclimbed Arctic peaks, these expeditions push Backshall and his expert crew to the limit.

"There are still countless expeditions to be conquered and world discoveries to be made, and I am honored to have had the ability to be among the first to set foot in these incredible places," said the intrepid host. "It is thrilling to not know what you will find next. That's what exploration is all about."

POLAR EXTREMES

TWO-HOUR SPECIAL

WED, FEB 5 - 8pm

Hosted by renowned paleontologist Kirk Johnson, the film takes viewers on a dramatic and surprising adventure from pole to pole and back in time—650 million years ago to present day—to uncover the extraordinary story of the Earth's poles and their changing climates.

Of all the fresh water that exists on Earth today, 70% of it is frozen, held in glaciers and ice caps, most of it in the Arctic and Antarctic—but Earth wasn't always like this. Hidden in the rocks and trapped under the ice are clues that reveal a planet totally different from the one we know today. Following a trail of strange fossils found in all the wrong places—beech trees in Antarctica, alligators in the Arctic—Johnson finds evidence that the Arctic was once covered in a subtropical forest and dinosaurs once lived near the South Pole. A journey to the hot Death Valley desert uncovers rocks that could only get there by glacier, revealing another very different age, when ice sheets extended from pole to pole, turning the entire globe into a giant “snowball” Earth.

Featuring stunning footage from some of the most remote locations on the planet, combined with rich, 3D graphics of long-lost landscapes, Polar Extremes immerses viewers in a scientific quest to explore the unexpected secrets of our planet's polar past. Why were the North and South Poles virtually ice free for much of the last billion years? Which triggers turned a balmy “Hothouse” Earth—home to dinosaurs for more than 150 million years—into a frozen “Icehouse” landscape? What drives the poles to such extremes? And, can the stories of the past reveal what will happen to the poles—and the rest of our planet—in the future?

AMERICAN MASTERS: MILES DAVIS: BIRTH OF THE COOL TUES, FEB 25 - 9pm

Miles Davis. The quintessential "Renaissance Man" known for his restless artistic aesthetic is widely regarded as one of the most innovative, influential and highly respected figures in music. He changed the course of music five or six times, remains a fashion and cultural icon, and his globally recognized artwork continues to resonate with multiple generations. He was an extraordinary artist who sacrificed everything for his music –the man with a sound so beautiful it could break your heart.

In this documentary, award-winning filmmaker Stanley Nelson delves deep into the world of a beloved musical giant.

With full access to the Miles Davis Estate, the film features never-before-seen footage, including studio outtakes from his recording sessions, rare photos and new interviews. Quincy Jones, Carlos Santana, Clive Davis, Wayne Shorter and Ron Carter are just a few of the luminaries weighing in on the life and career of a true visionary, an innovator and originator who defies categorization and commands respect.

"Miles was a man apart – in life, in love, in music – a singular artist who never looked back and who changed everything we thought we knew about jazz, about music, about life, several times over in his career. With this film, I hope to unpack the mythology that surrounds Mr. Davis and present a definitive account of the man behind the legend," said Stanley Nelson.

MASTERPIECE

SANDITON

PREMIERES SUNDAY, JANUARY 12 at 9pm

Jane Austen was chronically ill with a mysterious disease in early 1817, when she turned her thoughts to a happier subject. She started work on a witty and delightful novel set in a seaside town. She never finished it. Now, noted screenwriter Andrew Davies (Pride and Prejudice, Les Misérables, Primetime Emmy® winner for Little Dorrit) picks up Austen's plot and takes it in a glorious and satisfying direction, on Sanditon.

Tom Parker is obsessed with turning the sleepy seaside village of Sanditon into a fashionable health resort, and he enlists the backing of local bigwig Lady Denham. Through a mishap, Tom makes the acquaintance of the Heywoods and invites their eldest daughter, Charlotte, for an extended stay at Sanditon.

Playing the head of the Parker family, Kris Marshall stars as Tom Parker, an enthusiastic and happily married man with a vision of putting Sanditon on the map. Full of energy and charm, Tom's a risk-taker although his unbending belief in his venture could see his obsession land him in trouble.

Rose Williams stars as Charlotte. Excited by the promise of adventure that Sanditon offers, Charlotte is a young woman of enormous energy who builds a reputation as an integral part of the new town. Open and optimistic in spirit, she's excited by the changes the nineteenth century promises and she's ready for a new life; she's a truly modern Austen heroine. Confident in her opinions but unfamiliar with the rules of high society, Charlotte's self-assurance is knocked when she meets Sidney. Will Sanditon give her somewhere, and someone, to love?

Rose Williams as Charlotte & Theo James as Sydney

At Sanditon, the sensible Charlotte observes hypochondria, avarice and attempted seduction run amok. Lady Denham, a widow, is playing match-maker for her destitute nephew, Sir Edward, who is determined to seduce Lady Denham's ward, Clara. The arrival of wealthy, mixed-race heiress Miss Lambe, under the protection of Tom's upright brother Sidney, adds an interesting complication. Eligible men naturally find Miss Lambe fascinating, while Charlotte is intrigued by Sidney.

Theo James plays Sidney, a man never the same from one moment to the next. Unpredictable, roguish and restless — seemingly never settling in one place for very long — self-made man Sidney finds his responsibilities to his family in Sanditon somewhat tiresome. And yet his cynicism masks a sensitive soul wounded by a broken heart that has never fully healed. In the company of Charlotte, Sidney must rediscover who he is and crucially, learn to trust again.

With many promising loose ends and romantic possibilities, how will the young people pair off? Who will Lady Denham designate as her heir? Will Tom's tourist spa finally catch on with the public? Where will that lead? Andrew Davies imaginatively enters this world of Georgian-era suitors, hustlers, and health cranks and boldly tells us what happens next.

Remarkably, even as Jane Austen was succumbing to the ravages of her fatal illness, she chose to lampoon the contemporary fad for tonics, sea water cures, and other medical remedies. Undiagnosed at the time, her malady was probably Addison's disease, which today is easily treatable. Jane Austen died at age 41, on July 18, 1817.

Spectrum Ch. 191

Create TV features viewer-favorite public television "do-it-yourself" series and specials on cooking, travel, arts and crafts, gardening, home improvement and other lifestyle interests.

Now there's a new schedule coming to Southern Oregon PBS Create! We're adding more lifestyle shows and helping you find your favorites even easier! From fitness to food, weekly showcases to popular content at dedicated times, Create TV will have something for everyone!

In January, settle in each weekend to watch your favorite shows in one binge-worthy format. Each Friday, Saturday and Sunday on the Create channel, SO PBS will air a 5-hour programming marathon centered around a theme — a holiday, a country, a particular food, even a single show. All the excitement of a marathon in the comfort of your home home!

We hope you enjoy these changes and welcome your feedback at sopbs.org/contactus.
