A Message From Mark

Mark Stanislawski, President & CEO of SO PBS

I want to start out by saying thank you to everyone who took the time to complete our annual Viewer Survey. We are happy to report that we received hundreds of responses, and many clear trends emerged from the information. The data from this survey will be used to help to guide our decisions over the next few months. Thank you for making your voices heard.

One trend we have seen at the station is the increased adoption of the PBS member benefit, PASSPORT.

In the last five months, we have had our best five months in terms of minutes streamed with PASSPORT. More and more members are activating their accounts and watching titles from our vast On Demand library. In addition to being able to view programs that were on our air, PASSPORT also provides access to hundreds of other titles. Log on to see your PBS favorites, as well as local and regional programs and digital-first content.

And I am excited to announce that our PASSPORT library will be getting much larger this fall. APT has announced that they will be merging their content with the PBS PASSPORT system, doubling the amount of programs available to stream. Titles in the APT library include fan favorites like AMERICA'S TEST KITCHEN, SAMANTHA BROWN'S PLACES TO LOVE, LEGACY LIST and many more. Expect to see these changes start to occur within the coming months.

And, in even more good news, the PBS app recently underwent a makeover to improve functionality and the user experience.

PASSPORT is now easier to use than ever. You can now use the app to watch our live signal, as well as stream our On Demand titles. If you haven't yet logged on to explore your PASSPORT benefit, I invite you to do so!

In other news, we have a great line-up of programs coming your way over the next two months. Productions are in full swing again as we recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, and we have some wonderful shows coming your way. Make sure to tune in for the talented line-up slated for this year's celebration of our country, A CAPITOL FOURTH (July 4). And coming Sunday, August 29, enjoy the catchy and beloved songs from the award-winning musical, WICKED IN CONCERT.

Stay tuned for more exciting programs and station developments. As always, thank you for your support of Southern Oregon PBS.

Take Care,

Mark Stanislawski

SO PBS: More than Television

Heidi Lanier, Director of Marketing & Communications

PBS is known for its incredible televised content, but are you making the most of your public media experience? In addition to our broadcast signal, there are many ways to access your favorite PBS content, take a deeper dive on the subjects you care about, and get involved with the PBS community.

PASSPORT: Did you miss a program you had been excited to see? No worries, stream it on PASSPORT! We have two ways for you to access our Video on Demand Library: using your web browser and going to video.sopbs.org or downloading the PBS app on your streaming device. Most programs that air are available to stream with PASSPORT.

If it's been a while since you checked out PASSPORT then you really haven't seen it. PASSPORT recently underwent a makeover that focused on making the user experience even easier than it was. Log on and get streaming!

LIVESTREAMING: Want to catch your favorite show live, but can't get to your TV? View our PBS livestream, hosted at sopbs.org/live, as well as on the PBS app. Our livestream is only available in our broadcast area, but is a great option if you are experiencing technical difficulties or are not home.

SOCIAL MEDIA: Follow SO PBS on all major social media platforms to see previews of upcoming programs, local news updates, feel good stories and more. Engage with other followers to grow our online community and increase the benefit of public media!

E-NEWSLETTER: SO PBS's e-News is another great way to stay apprised of what is happening at the station and get information on upcoming programs. This newsletter goes out on the first of every month and features links to promo videos, station announcements, artwork, recipes, at educational resources and more.

PODCASTS: There are several PBS podcasts that allow you to connect with PBS content on the go.

For instance, BEHIND THE SCENES: STORIES FROM YOUR FAVORITE PBS SHOWS is a 20-minute podcast with a focus on one PBS program per segment. Listen to insider anecdotes and stories from the producers, directors, performers, scientists, journalists, singers and stars who create your favorite PBS programs! You can find BEHIND THE SCENES: STORIES FROM YOUR FAVORITE PBS SHOWS on iTunes, Pandora, Spotify, Vurbl, Amazon Music, iHeartRadio, Google Podcasts.

VOLUNTEERING: Want to take the next step in your involvement with SO PBS? Become a volunteer! We accept volunteers in a variety of areas, including production, pledge, office work and events. We would love to get to know you and invite you to reach out! Email info@SOPBS.org to learn more

Tuesday, August 3 – 9pm

He was the most famous athlete of his time, whose stunning triumph at the 1936 Olympic Games captivated the world, even as it infuriated the Nazis. Despite the racial slurs he endured, his grace and athleticism rallied crowds around the world. Yet when the four-time Olympic gold medalist returned home, he couldn't even ride in the front of a bus. JESSE OWENS is the story of the 22-year-old son of a sharecropper who triumphed over adversity to become a hero and world champion. But his story is also about the elusive, fleeting quality of fame and the way Americans idolize athletes when they suit our purpose, and forget them once they don't.

Tuesdays, July 6 – 20 at 9pm

As part of its commitment to support and present diverse content created by a broad array of storytellers, PBS presents a new three-part anthology series of short fiction and nonfiction films. Featuring 13 original films made by filmmakers working across genres, the shorts explore a wide range of experiences, perspectives and styles to highlight the rich diversity of the Latino/a/x community across the United States and Puerto Rico.

Tuesday, July 6

Death & Deathability – A Period Piece - Mystified by the unexpected arrival of her first period, Ceci concludes she's dying and prepares a bucket list to accomplish on her final day.

Folk Frontera - A magical-realist portrait of two fronteriza women as they struggle to find their place in the vast Chihuahuan Desert.

The Blue Cape - Set in hurricane-ravaged Puerto Rico, 10-year-old Junior is summoned by his mother to search for the medicine his grandfather so desperately needs.

La Tienda - A profile of Daniela del Mar and Camila Araya Pérez, two artists and Latinx letterpress printers in Portland, Oregon.

Dear Queer Dancer - Follow two LGBTQ trailblazing couples on their way to compete at the World Latin Dance Cup.

Tuesday, July 13

Un Pequeño Corte - When 6-year-old Elizabeth cuts off one of her pigtails while at school seeking to find her own identity, she must face the consequences of her strong-willed mother.

Body and Spirit in Times of Pandemic - When the pandemic hits, Edwin Edwin Siguenza, a Guatemalan immigrant truck driver and pastor of a Latino Evangelical church in Los Angeles, has to navigate the risks of being an essential worker while attending to the needs of his congregation and the pressure to keep the church open.

Our Lady Lupe - Chico, a 10-year-old boy, embarks on a journey to fix his mother's broken-down car with the help of a mystical mechanic—and learns a lesson about tradition and family.

Pasos de Valor - The story of Val, a pregnant MBA student whose due date and final exam are in conflict.

Tuesday, July 20

Mi Fango, Mi Cerro - Chemi Rosado-Seijo, an artist in Puerto Rico, works with a community to paint houses in shades of green.

The Daily War - A veteran and her son struggle to make ends meet. When a job presents itself, it ends up triggering her PTSD.

Cuban American Gothic - The comic and surreal story of Maggie, who is living alone in New York City during the early 2020 pandemic when her parents come back from the dead to help.

Noche Buena - A dysfunctional Cuban family gathers around the dinner table. As resentment escalates into verbal and literal diarrhea, they uncover hard truths about themselves—all before the flan.

UNFORGOTTEN

Sundays, July 11 – August 15 at 9pm

In Season 4, Cassie and Sunny investigate a cold case with alarming links to the police force when a corpse is discovered in a scrap yard, his features frozen in time.

All four suspects have links to the law and attended the same police training course back in 1989. But who exactly is fighting for justice? Can the police force ever really be trusted? And will Cassie and Sunny find themselves on the wrong side of the law? How long can one fight for justice while preserving their own sanity?

Episode 1 - July 11

Parts of a body are found. The team believes the remains have been stored for a long time. After deciding to retire, Cassie learns she must complete 30 years of service to receive her pension.

Episode 2 – July 18

Cassie and Sunny identify four potential suspects who trained as police officers. They have no luck finding the rest of the body and decide to go public with the discovery of Walsh's remains.

Episode 3 – July 25

The team interviews the four suspects, who all deny knowing the victim. Boulting discovers Walsh was cautioned three weeks before his death. Collier finds the rest of Walsh's body.

Episode 4 – August 1

Cassie and Sunny discover Walsh was chased by all four suspects on the night in question. The pathologist identifies a cause of death implying Walsh was murdered.

Episode 5 – August 8

Cassie and Sunny interview two of the suspects again and get closer to the truth. Balcombe believes she knows the cause of Walsh's death. Things take an unexpected and devastating turn for Cassie.

Episode 6 – August 15

Despite a tragic turn of events, Sunny and the team narrow down the suspects. Will they succeed in bringing Walsh's killer to justice?

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

Starting July 20- see times below

This unique and stylish biography series explores an elite few of the 20th century's greatest figures. Each chapter in these artfully-crafted episodes is inspired by some of the most memorable words spoken by these world icons. The series sheds light on key moments in their lives, illuminating their fascinating personalities and spotlighting their profound significance.

Pope Francis – July 20 – 8pm

Learn what experiences led Jorge Bergoglio to the highest office in the Catholic Church. He made history by being the first pope from the Americas, the first Jesuit priest to be named pope and the first to take the name Francis.

Chuck Berry – July 27 – 8pm

Take a riveting ride on the Chuck Berry train, exploring the life of the man behind the music. By blending “hill-billy” music with R&B and writing impactful lyrics, Berry birthed a renaissance in popular music we now call rock and roll.

Muhammad Ali – August 4– 11pm

The film follows Muhammad Ali's rise from the Columbia Gym in Louisville, Alabama to international fame, as he transcended his great athletic achievements to become one of the most influential Americans of his time.

Diana, Princess of Wales – Aug 8- 8pm & Aug 22- 10pm

See how Diana defied expectations and evolved into one of the most impactful icons of our time. Look back on her life through a contemporary lens that credits her choices, suffering and triumphs as the ultimate disrupter for a generation of women.

Queen Elizabeth II – Aug 22- 9pm

Queen Elizabeth's remarkable life, from her youth to her reign of more than 60 years.

Tuesday, August 3 -10pm

June 22, 1938. Though the Great Depression rages and war looms, the eyes of the world are on Yankee Stadium in New York where German Max Schmeling and American Joe Louis are squaring off for the heavyweight championship of the world. More than 90,000 people crowd the stadium to watch the encounter, and millions more around the world — the largest radio audience in history — listen to what one commentator would call “two minutes and four seconds of murder.”

The pressure on each fighter is enormous. Louis is not only fighting for the honor of the country; he is quite literally holding the hopes of all African Americans. For Schmeling, the fight will be a demonstration of Hitler’s racial theories; should he lose, many fear what could happen to him. There was a rivalry that would draw in two nations inching closer to war, and take the measure of two men who had been fighting all their lives.

“Often individuals become symbols of larger ideas and regimes. This was no less true in 1938, on the eve of World War II,” said the film’s director, Barak Goodman.

The two fighters met for the first time in Yankee Stadium in 1936. Louis, whose rise to the top of the heavyweight ranks was accomplished with unprecedented speed and brilliance, was the prohibitive favorite, so much so that not even the Nazi government thought Schmeling, with an up-and-down career in the ring, had a chance. Only Max himself was confident, believing that he had spotted a tiny flaw in Louis’ overwhelming attack.

THE FIGHT explores the 1938 heavyweight bout and finds two men who, in the shadow of war, became reluctant symbols of equality and supremacy, democracy and fascism.

LUCY WORSLEY'S ROYAL MYTHS & SECRETS

Sundays, August 29 – September 12 – 8pm

Join beloved royal historian Lucy Worsley on a journey to sort out fact from fiction about tumultuous times when radicalism and rebellion threatened Europe's monarchies. From political earthquakes to a "mad" king, from the Tower of London to the streets of Moscow, Lucy reveals that royal history isn't always what it seems.

In the continuing series, Lucy examines three pivotal historic periods, uncovering the artworks and artifacts that monarchs used to enhance their power and prestige, and the attempts, often successful, to bring them down. Featuring interviews with experts and authors, who uncover long-held myths and shine light on the exaggerations, the series reveals the lesser-known stories behind three historical moments, and how the use of "spin" by the powerful has long preceded our modern era.

Henry the VIII's Reformation (Sunday, August 29)

Was Henry VIII's desire to divorce Catherine of Aragon and marry Anne Boleyn the real reason for England's split from Catholic Europe? Or was a secret political agenda at work?

George IV and The Regency (Sunday, September 5)

The Regency Era, thought of as genteel and well-ordered, full of beautiful buildings and Jane Austen romance, was actually an age of revolution. Lucy examines the so-called "madness" of King George III and how it threatened the British throne.

The Russian Revolution (Sunday, September 12)

Contrary to the oft-told story of the Russian Revolution—that Lenin and the Bolsheviks swept the Czar from power in October 1917 and Communism was born—a group of women workers actually started the revolution in February 1917. The Czar, forced to abdicate long before the Bolsheviks took control, was betrayed by his cousin, King George V, who opposed the British government's offer of asylum, which would have saved the Czar and his family.

MUSIC THROUGH THE LENS

FRIDAYS, JULY 16 – AUGUST 20 at 9pm

A Six-Part Series That Explores the Thrilling World of Music Photography!

ICON: MUSIC THROUGH THE LENS follows the fascinating lives and often wild experiences of the artists who documented popular music in images, from the earliest darkrooms to the fast-evolving digital landscapes of the present day. Featuring irreverent interviews with some of the most famous music photographers, musicians, gallerists, music journalists and social commentators, the film is an eye-opening thrill ride that captures what it was like on both sides of the camera when the most recognizable images in history were taken. Viewers will learn about the origins of these enduring, iconic images and the future of music photography.

Friday, July 16 – ON CAMERA

What makes an image iconic? ON CAMERA explores how photographic images of Snoop Dogg, Bob Dylan and Madonna influence perceptions and how they communicate, through themes of interaction, technical skill, occasional luck and cultural impact. The episode goes back to Robert Johnson to find the genesis of music photographs that demonstrate the incredible power of a frozen moment in time.

Friday, July 23 – ON THE ROAD

On stage, backstage, on the tour bus—from the earliest days of live performance to the modern day, visually striking live music photographs have captured moments of pure magic and created era-defining imagery. ON THE ROAD features touring stories from early trailblazers who went on the road with artists such as Led Zeppelin, David Bowie, The Rolling Stones and The Who, mixed with tales from the punk era of CGBGs, the Clash and the Sex Pistols.

Friday, July 30 – ON THE RECORD

The photography of record sleeves from jazz and early rock 'n' roll is analyzed and explored, from the Beatles and Pink Floyd to the highly stylized and conceptual imagery on albums by Blur and Dizzee Rascal. Themes of nostalgia, resonance and association run through the superb stories of classic album covers by the Jam, Lou Reed, Thin Lizzy, Bruce Springsteen, Iggy Pop, Joy Division and Crosby Stills and Nash. Highlights include Lynn Goldsmith on Patti Smith's Horses, Jonathan Mannion on Jay-Z and DMX, and Elliott Landy on Bob Dylan's Nashville Skyline.

Friday, August 6 – ON THE COVER

Music magazines played a pivotal role in elevating music photography to iconic status, providing a visual context for some of the world's greatest bands and their music. ON THE COVER explores the legacy of the early covers of Rolling Stone, Creem, NME, Mojo and Q. Journalists, musicians and publicists discuss the enduring appeal and importance of the printed page, with music photographers who shot many of the most iconic front covers telling some touching, scandalous and never-heard-before stories about these images. Highlights include Chalkie Davies' story of how Elton John hoped to use an NME magazine cover to come out, a young Michael Jackson, Mick Jagger with a leopard and the Stone Roses with a lot of paint.

Friday, August 13 – ON THE WALL

The transition of music photography from being considered disposable to a highly collectable and valuable art form is examined by gallerists, publishers, art experts and featured photographers whose body of work now hangs on the walls of the world's most revered institutions. Tracing the journey from the early days of low-paid assignments to the first gallery exhibitions of music photography and expensive coffee table books, ultimately arriving at individual prints now selling for six and even seven figures, ON THE WALL offers insight into this relatively new industry, exploring the relationship between art and commerce. Highlights include the section on Abbey Road - the "Holy Grail" of music photographs - Bruce Talamon on Miles Davis and how he got his Taschen book deal, Chris Floyd on waiting all day for the 'real' Paul McCartney, Jill Furmanovsky on her profile of a shy Charlie Watts and Bob Gruen on getting a surprise call from the UK's National Portrait Gallery.

Friday, August 20 – ON THE NET

Where does music photography sit in the contemporary popular culture landscape? The seismic switch from analogue to digital is discussed alongside the rise and influence of social media. ON THE NET ends the series in seeking, through the next generation of music photographers, whether music photography still has a role to play—does it still carry the same importance, and who are the new standard bearers of the profession?

America ReFramed: Charlie vs Goliath

Former Catholic priest Charlie Hardy is 75 years old and has no money or political experience. But none of that dissuades him from running for the U.S. Senate in his home state of Wyoming. Charlie's principled and courageous stand against money in politics attracts a ragtag group of young volunteers. As they jump aboard a 1970 Crown school bus, campaigning across the Wild West state, can they sustain their grassroots campaign and shake up the political establishment?
